Endorsed on the back of the foregoing list.

A list of men who were engaged in the battle at the San Jacinto April 21st 1836.
Also annexed the men who were sick and detailed to remain at the upper encampment.

The State of Texas } County of Travis } Personally came and appeared before me Thomas de Cordova, a Notary Public, in and for Travis County, duly Commissioned and sworn, Jesse Billingsly a citizen of Bastrop County, to me personally known, who being sworn deposes and says that the annexed paper purporting to be "a list of those composing the First Regiment of Texas Volunteers, present at the Battle of San Jacinto April 21st 1836, commanded by Col Edward Burlison" was made out by William Gorham on the battle ground by order of Col Edward Burlison, the day after the battle, and includes those who were at the encampment at Harrisburg.

The said list was given to affiant by General Burlison and has been in his possession ever since; said paper is in the handwriting of said Gorham and has an endorsement on the back signed by said Gorham.

Witness says said list does not embrace those members of said Regiment who were on furlough out of his Company. Affiant says that Edward Blakey of his Company was on furlough to attend to his widowed mother. Thomas S. McGehee and Noel Nixon of his Company were also abs. on furlough to attend to their families and only reached the battle ground on their return the day after the Ba J. S. Morris of his Company was detai to wait on Col. J. C. Neil who was wounded on the 20th of April, and his name was accidentally omitted from the list of affiant's Company. James Stewart is his son and also the
